He felt that some of these things are needed for the board member, the fiscal responsibility as well as the ability to convince the City Council and others for the priorities we want to implement and get the citizens to buy in. He said he would love to serve on this committee because he wanted somebody like him who is searching for a place to live, and when they search, they find Novi at the top of the list, the best place to live. 1. William Bluford – Building Authority

Mr. Bluford said he has been a proud Novi resident since 2008 and Novi had provided his family a great quality of life. He wanted to give back to his community. He became involved with the community back in 2015 and he graduated from the Novi Ambassador Academy. He said two years ago he was appointed to a partial term on the Building Authority in March of 2019. He stated that the the Building Authority meets as needed, and as such, he has not been involved in any meetings because there have not been any meetings of the Building Authority. He wished to be reappointed. He thought Novi was a top-notch community and he wanted it to remain that way. He said he wanted to volunteer and give back in some way. He tries to stay involved in the community. He stated he graduated from the Lakes Area Citizen Police Academy and the Michigan State Police Citizens Police Academy as well, and he is Vice President of the Broad of Directors for Meadowbrook Townhome's which is a Condo Association. He said in his professional life, he is Vice President of Huntington Technology which is a Managed Service Provider and IP Company. He said he was named as a next generation solution provider leader in 2020, which is a great professional honor. He hoped to be reappointed to the Building Authority or however the Council sees fit. He said if there is somewhere else, he could be a good fit; he was open to that was well. He was just looking forward to continuing to serve. Thank you.

2. Jeffrey Bowdell – Construction Board of Appeals

Mr. Bowdell said he has been a resident Novi for about 25 years. He said he has been on the Board of Appeals just about that long. He said he has been a building official for 33 years in different municipalities. He said they do not have to meet anywhere near as often as they used to many ears ago, but he served proudly. He said it was a technical committee, as he was sure Council knew. He said he was on his 17th Code Book, which is there every three years. He stated that he has quite a large background in building codes. He hoped to be reappointed, he enjoyed serving on the committee. He thought they have done a great job for the City because there are occasionally some big challenges that they deal with.

3. John Enkemann – Construction Board of Appeals

Mr. Enkemann said it took him more than two minutes to fill out the form to be reappointed. He has been on the Board for 28 years, 25 of them he has been the chairman and served with Mr. Bowdell and Mr. Qadeer. We do not meet very often, the questionnaire put us into a position or put him into a position of what he wanted to achieve over the future. With a board that does not meet very often it is hard to have a future to be able to predict. He mentioned that he would love to have all the Board Members get a raise. It has been offered, and 100% of zero is zero, but it would be great to be able to authorize us all being able to have active Code Books that you know would allow them to be able to make this committee consistent. He felt that consistency was important for a committee like this because there is a certain value to understanding how our board has performed on certain cases. He thought being able to have a certain amount of consistency in those actions. He said he would love to serve more. He said he has been an architect for over 40 years.

She recently retired after 17 years with Michigan Medicine. She thought it was time to become engaged with the community, so she thought she would start with the Beautification Commission. She stated she has been a gardener her whole life since she was three, pretty much what she grew and planted, she got hooked on growing things. So, she has lived in a garden in several states. She has traveled throughout the United States and several overseas countries. She always observed how the proximity of the outdoor environment to the living spaces in the cities as the overall vitality of the area and the engagement of the citizens, and the quality of life to that. She believed that having access to the natural environment is restorative and energizing for people especially in times of stress like this. A model of this is Michigan Medicine, where our priority in landscape at facilities was giving patients and families quick access to a pleasant outdoor environment where they can sit under and relax under a beautiful tree or look at bugs and butterflies along the walking path. There was also meant it was mostly beneficial for the staff just to have access when they are struggling with their stressful and busy situations at work. She said it was important for people, especially now. She said Novi has engaged citizens, we have the Beautification Commission and they have done a great job in creating this kind of atmosphere here in Novi. The subdivisions are inviting, and the parks look nice. The butterfly gardens are doing well, and they are independent. She said during the lockdown last spring she saw quite often how people enjoy their outdoor spaces. She said she would like to be part of that.

5. Cynthia Lang – Beautification Commission

Ms. Lang said she has been a resident of Novi for 15 years now. She has been on the Beautification Commission for about three and a half years. She stated that during that time she has been chair pretty much the entire time. She said she would like to continue to serve on the Beautification Commission because she thought they have some great projects ahead of us. She stated that during the last three and a half years they were able to get Novi certified by the National Wildlife Federation, and not many cities have that. She said that was exciting. They also have some other exciting projects in the future. They were a little bit stymied by the COVID, of course, but lost a little bit of momentum last years, but there are finally getting it back and trying to wrap up some of the existing projects that they have. She said they want to get some park signs at the entrances for the parks, we would like to get companies, individuals, whatever to design and implement some cool native plants around the areas. She said they would like to get into the schools more and do some educational presentations for the kids. She said she would like to see some of those projects through. She mentioned the butterfly gardens and said they would like to get some labels out there to identify the plants so that our residents can really enjoy those plants and maybe see what they are so they can take those back to their homes and bring more pollinators into the City.

6. Kathleen Neighbors – Historical Commission (Withdrew application)

7. Shaun Page – Beautification Commission

Mr. Page said he was interested in the Beautification Committee. He said his background is a wine expert. He said he studies viticulture extensively, he has been to many vineyards around the world, around the country, he has brought in harvest many times over again. He said for the last 15 years she has worked for Celebrity Chefs which was very interesting, a lot of fun, but now he is a stay-at-home dad, and he does consulting work here and there. This is kind of my wheelhouse, he said he developed concepts for MGM Grand Resorts, restaurants, this is his passion, his livelihood, and just everything that he knows. He said he had a lot of ideas that he would like to present and hoped he would have the opportunity to do that. He stated this is everything that he does as part of the seed saving savers exchange, he does mushroom hunting, he is an avid fisherman, he does a lot of heirloom tomatoes which he is very passionate about. He said tomatoes are very similar to vines in the fact that they are open pollinated. He said there are a lot of cool things that you can do with plants and viticulture in general. He hoped he would have the opportunity to join the team. He said he has two children, and that is the reason why he took a step back from the corporate world. His family is his life and he truly loved Novi. He felt he would have a lot of things to bring to the table. He thanked everyone for giving him a chance and listening to him.

8. Dan Pierce – Historical Commission

Mr. Pierce said he has lived in Novi for almost 11 years. He would like to serve on the Novi Historical Commission because he believed preserving history is done through education. He said education is done and achieved through storytelling, and for the last 20 years he has been a storyteller. He served as the communications director for Ford Motor Company in their autonomous vehicle unit. His love for history started when he as a young child. He grew up just in the shadows of President James A. Garfield house in Cleveland, Ohio. He thought while President Garfield was not the most well-known president, living in his shadows of his long field of estate, he captivated him, and he wanted to learn more about history. He stated his family moved to Farmington Hills years later, and where his passion was further fueled by an incredible teacher at North Farmington High School. He stated that Mr. Maxwell, his favorite professor of all time, told him that it is not enough to know the basics when it comes to history. He would say anyone can know the date of the Gettysburg battle. It is up to us to remember the humidity and how it impacted that battle. That is the type of history you need to know. He said he attended the University of Missouri, received a journalism degree, but his passion for history forced him and compelled him to get a bachelor's degree in history as well. He has been using public relations to tell stories for big brands. He concluded that he would take this same knowledge that he has in storytelling and help preserve and protect the history of the City of Novi and tell our great stories. He thanked Council for their time.

9. Kamran Qadeer – Construction Board of Appeals

Mr. Kadir said he has been a resident of Novi since the year 2000. He said he was a licensed civil engineer, and he works for an engineering company in Novi. He has served on the Construction Board of Appeals for over two terms and was seeking reappointment to that same Board. He stated why he was interested in serving his community that he lived in. First, during his career, he has had a passion for serving on committees and engaged in professional organizations throughout his career. He said he would like to continue to do that and give back to the community that he lived in. Second, he felt his educational background and the experience over the years whether it is in site drainage, site development, transportation, roads, traffic, would be a good asset for this board. He said he could help the Construction Board of Appeals in understanding the contractor issues and the challenges that we face in the construction. He stated that past two terms are some of the lessons that we have learned, we have not had a whole lot of meetings. He explained that most of the cases that have been presented to the board have been mostly grading issues related to steeper driveway slopes, sidewalk slopes, drainage issues, and sometimes interpretation of the building codes and engineering standards. He said some of these are related to site constraints and we evaluate those individually and see what impacts it has on the neighboring owners and provide guidance to the applicants. He said he would like to continue to do that in the future. He thanked Council for their time.

Mayor Gatt said that was their last presenter and he thanked everyone on behalf of the entire City Council and all the staff, we appreciate your willingness to serve and we will make our decision as to who will be appointed to the Boards and Commissions at our next meeting.
