Ohio Light Opera- Featuring THREE Musicals - Please Note: All seats are on the main floor for all performances!

1. CAMELOT (1960). “Don't let it be forgot, that once there was a spot, for one brief shining moment, that was known as Camelot.” With these words—some of Broadway's most unforgettable—King Arthur instills in a young boy the hopes and ideals of a once enchanted kingdom, where he himself had promoted justice and civility over battle and greed.

2. NO NO NANETTE (1925). The 1920s saw more than 500 musicals open on Broadway—from operettas to revues to musical comedies. Yet none captured the carefree spirit and “roar” of the decade better than this Vincent Youmans masterpiece. “Tea for Two” has become one of the world's most popular tunes; “I Want to Be Happy” elicited multiple encores show after show; & the cheeky “You Can Dance with Any Girl at All” leads into the charged first-act finale.

3. HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING (1961). Winner of seven Tony awards & only the fourth musical to win the coveted Pulitzer Prize for Drama. The story of a young window washer, J. Pierrepont Finch, who sets his sights on rising through the ranks of the World Wide Wicket Company. Through wily manipulation of the corporate hierarchy, along with a little encouragement from his personal secretary Rosemary & aid from the voluptuous Hedy La Rue, he is finally appointed chairman. Song highlights include Finch's self-loving “I Believe in You”; “Grand Old Ivy,” & the show-stopping “Brotherhood of Man.”
